MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am writing this during the ski trip to Winter Park. We have had a wonderful week of skiing with bluebird skies and small crowds. While Winter Park is not the largest ski resort in the country, there is plenty here to keep everyone busy. Not only is the skiing great, but the town offers tubing, dogsledding, snowmobiling, and Snowcat tours. The prices are fairly reasonable here and the staff are very friendly.

I am most proud of our group of skiers, not only their skiing ability, but mostly their pleasant dispositions and roll-with-the-punches attitudes.

We had members flying from Atlanta, Milwaukee, St. Louis, and the main group coming from Springfield. Despite "Ice Storm 2017" that postponed the main group's arrival, we all got together within four hours of our original estimated arrival and everyone was happy to be there. The positive attitudes made the day go better for everyone.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Help needed, five to come out on February twelve,
 Serve breakfast at the KC is were we will dwelve.
 Special Olympics is the cause that needs our fine group,
 Just help in the morning and you'll be in the loop.
 We had one of our best Decembers,
 With the help of our members!
 Our Salvation Army bells rang,
 Mini O'Bierne store was a bang.
 Our Trivia night happened, with no rain or ice,
 We filled twenty-five tables, darn that was nice.
 Our emcees, our judges, and thank you DJ Jon,
 Desk workers, thank you for a job well done.
 Misty, and Karen, Lindsay and Jan,
 You now know that I am your number one fan!

Beth, Chris, Diane, Cathy & Wayne,
 You old rascals kept me from being insane.
 Kathy, Terri, Becca, Joan and Dave Cation,
 I am relaxed, thank you, time for vacation.
 To Asbury, we thank you, for all that you do,
 Soon, we'll give you, a check that starts with a two.
 And thanks to our winners, who gave their dough back
 To help a great cause, with some funds that they lack.
 My poem is over, this was just a roll of the dice,
 And it was I, old Rick, that wrote the questions on mice!
 Thank to all that helped and attended our trivia night,
 You are wonderful people, and just plain out of sight!

VAIL SKI TRIP

A cold windy morning greeted the 17 ski-trippers who met the bus in Springfield. After the usual welcomes and rechecking to make sure that everyone was there, the travelers were told to make sure they had everything they needed from their cars. They were assured that if they forgot something not to worry because it would be there when they got back. After riding one block, one of us realized his pills had been left behind. So back we went to retrieve them.

Sweet rolls helped occupy us on the uneventful trip to the St. Louis airport. After checking in, our traveler was so proud of his pills he decided to spread them on the floor near the counter so everyone could admire them. Of course it was his wife's fault for not closing the case properly. Byron Nesbitt joined us at the airport to bring our total to 18.

In Denver Justin Long (Diane's son) and Craig Johnson (Cindy's brother) joined us to bring our total to 20. We followed our usual ritual of having the bus stop at King Super for food and Apple Jacks for liquid refreshments. About 40 miles from Vail it started snowing heavily. Our bus slowed down and put chains on tires without stopping. We drove without any problems until we got to the Antlers. Our bus was too tall to fit under the arched entrance into the courtyard. With the help of the Antlers' staff, the bus driver, and members of our group, we moved luggage and groceries into the reception area.

Everyone liked their condos at the Antlers, even if the second bedroom put two adults in close proximity without much storage room. What we especially liked was the short walk to the Lionshead gondola, where the Antlers' "ski valet" would have our skis waiting slopeside every day. After skiing, we would leave them in the same location and they would magically return to our ski lockers at the Antlers.

Luckily it had snowed 18 inches during the week prior to our arrival, because there had been very little snow before that. Snow fell the day we arrived and continued all the next day. Pushing all that snow on skis was hard on the legs, so a stop at the hot tub was eagerly anticipated. Pat Chesley looked out his condo window and saw a hot tub. The fact that it had 3 hotties in bikinis played no factor in his going to that hot tub. However, it may have been a major factor in his decision to stay there even when no one from the club showed up. The reason for that was that the hot tub belonged to the Marriott and not the Antlers.

At the Antlers hot tub, Garrett Johnson mistakenly picked up the wrong room key. Luckily his wife Jan had hers. Garrett showered and changed clothes and then went back to the hot tub to return the key.

The next 3 days of skiing were great. No one was hurt except for his or her pride. In one incident a skier fell and (true to his childhood nickname of “Butts”) slid down on his you-know-what to the bottom of the slope. Another snafu: One day Garrett took Tim Cravens’ skis from the rack and took the gondola up. He eventually realized his mistake and rode the gondola down to exchange the skis for his.

Some of our group, including Roger Schnelten, Diane Long and Cindy Johnson, felt under the weather but made the most of the Vail experience.

The last night we had a pizza party in the group leaders’ condo. Everyone enjoyed Chas Blythe playing his guitar before dinner. The pizza delivery guy showed up right on time except that two of the pizzas he brought were plain cheese instead of the meaty “everything” variety we had ordered. Local Joe’s made two fresh everything pizzas and delivered them later. The free cheese pizzas became breakfast and lunch the next day.

The bus company provided the wrong time for our departure. We were ready two hours early, and we got to stay in the condos or wander around town instead of waiting at the airport. Luckily these travelers had a great ability to stay flexible and enjoy their newfound time in Vail.

The leaders bribed the group with chocolate to pose for a group picture at the airport. Byron volunteered to be bumped so he said goodbye to us in Denver. The rest of us had a smooth ride to St. Louis, claimed our bags, and our bus got us back to Springfield before midnight. What a great trip!

Crazy Shopping with Jennifer in Chicago

Our train arrived promptly at Amtrak 6:32AM. Our engineer was very polite and stopped a few times for other trains to pass, therefore we arrived a bit late in Chicago. Our group broke up into several smaller groups. Jennifer and Mike went off to celebrate her birthday. Others went to museums, shopping, tea or participated in different adventures.

Those that were brave, followed me and my crazy ideas for an adventure day in Chicago. My group taxied our way to Water Tower for a brief shopping trip. We had lunch reservations at the Signature Room in the Hancock building. The view was breathtaking and the lunch was delightful.

We had to use the restrooms because of course one of the best views of the city is from the ladies bathroom.

After this we walked down the Magnificent Mile and made several stops along the way. The lake front wind made our journey very cold so I decided we needed to take a cab to Macy's aka former Marshall Fields. I wanted everyone to see the decorated animated windows and the gorgeous tree in the Walnut Room. After this we walked to the Christkindlmarkt to enjoy the hot wine and German items for sale. The cold weather made our stay there quite short. We needed to seek warmth in the shopping mall across the street.

On our way back to the train station, we needed to stop in Walgreens to warm up. My foggy glasses did not immediately recognize that the Bloechles and Walters were warming up in the store as well. We continued our walk to the train station. Adams Street across the river was completely closed. Of course, my instructions to the group was to take Adams to the train station, it was open to pedestrians last September.

Union Station was being remodeled and I was told we needed to be there one hour prior to our departure. There was no long security line, like in September so we all arrived with plenty of time to board the train.

The nice thing about being a group is that we get to board first. Our ride home was pleasant without many stops, a few members in our group may not remember our ride home, they were warming with Fireball to drink.

Only two people got lost. She called me. My Chicago expert, Karen O'Beirne knew exactly where she was. The other lost party didn't answer his phone but did find his way to the train station.

Other than the cold weather, Chicago is so beautiful to visit at Christmas time. I love to do this every year!

STANDING RULE #2

CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY (11/14/96), (Amended 5/13/99, 4/9/05 and 1/8/15)

“Cutoff” dates and non-refundable deposits for trips and activities may vary according to transportation, lodging or other associated deposits. Cutoff dates for trips and activities will be established for each trip or activity by the Executive Board and published in the monthly newsletter. All cancellations must be made to the Trip Leader in writing or via e-mail. Refunds will be made as follows:

1. For cancellations before the published cutoff date, a full refund of all monies paid will be issued in a timely manner, less any Executive Board-approved cancellation processing fee established and published in conjunction with the trip or activity advertisement in the monthly newsletter.
2. For cancellations after the cutoff date, refunds will be as follows:
 - a. For any trip or activity where the allotted number of spaces are completely reserved and a replacement can be found, a cancellation may be made and a full refund issued, less any processing fees, as described in paragraph 1, above, any time prior to the departure of the trip or the start of the activity, provided the replacement person pays the full amount due, in accordance with the payment schedule for the trip or activity.
 - b. If a replacement cannot be found, the member canceling the trip or activity may submit, in person, in writing, or via email, a request for a refund. This request must be sent to either the trip leader, the appropriate VP or directly to the Executive Board. The request must be submitted within 15 days after the scheduled start date of the trip or activity and shall state the reason for the cancellation and the amount of refund requested. Requests will only be considered by the Executive Board, and refunds will only be made, once the trip or activity is completed and the full financial statement has been submitted for review and approval, as described in Standing Rule #13. Any refund approved by the Executive Board will come from recoverable expenditures derived from the specific trip or activity and not from the Club’s general fund.
 - c. Refunds will be distributed no later than 180 days after the first scheduled day of the trip or activity.

STANDING RULE #5

TRIP MANAGEMENT AND CONDUCT (11/14/96), (Amended 4/9/05 and 1/8/15)

1. All Trip Leaders shall be at least 21 years of age.
2. Trips shall be run as advertised, unless ski conditions, safety or wellbeing of trip participants dictate otherwise, in which case, the decision for an alternate plan rests with the Vice President of Ski Trips, Day Trips, or Tour Trips (as appropriate) or the President prior to departure. After departure, this authority rests with the trip leader.
3. Conduct by any individual which is offensive or hazardous to others or that does not project a good image of the Club could result in expulsion from the trip at the nearest place of public lodging or transportation by the authority of the trip leader. The trip leader will provide a review of the circumstances at the next Executive Board meeting with a board decision to maintain or cancel the individual’s Club membership.
4. Individuals will be held responsible for any damage to personal or real property of others.
5. Club arranged accommodations cannot be shared with non-trip participants.

STANDING RULE #7

GROUND TRANSPORTATION SMOKING POLICY (11/14/96)

1. Smoking will only be allowed during scheduled stops approximately every two hours of travel, if requested. NO smoking inside the travel vehicle is allowed.
2. Trips under two hours in duration will be classified as “non-smoking trips.”

STANDING RULE #8

PARTIAL SKI TRIP PACKAGES (11/14/96) (amended 4/9/05)

1. For trips involving a request to delete air (or other packaged form of transportation) service, only the actual cost of the ticket will be deducted from the trip price. The participant’s portion of the club’s overhead cost, including ground transportation to the airport or rail station used for the trip, will be included in the partial trip price.
2. All requests for partial trip packages will only be honored to the point where the Club may drop reserved seats without penalty from the tour operator and/or the carrier.
3. If a request for a partial trip participation is made and honored, the participant must make payment in the full amount within 5 days of the approval notification. A “partial” trip payment is not refundable unless the trip is canceled. CANCELLATION CUT-OFF DATES DO NOT APPLY. The club will not refund or attempt to “resell” partial trip packages should the participant drop from the trip any time after payment is made.
4. Requests to exclude lift tickets from a trip package must be made at the time of sign up. Requests for partial trip packages, including lift tickets, will only be honored to the point where the Club may drop such tickets, or other items, without penalty or loss of income (including any comp). Unless otherwise approved by the Vice President of Ski Trips, the member requesting “no lifts” will pay the full trip price. After the trip is completed, the unused lift ticket will be returned by the Club to the tour operator or the ski area for possible refund. Any refund will then be made to the member by Club check. Refunds may not be possible if purchase and use of a lift ticket by all trip participants is required for the Club to receive a discounted “group rate.”
